

Location of electrical distribution box in Ireland

Overview

The National Control Centres in Dublin and Belfast make sure the lights stay on for everyone, 24 hours a day.

Key Takeaways

Electrical distribution boxes are widely available in Ireland through specialized electrical wholesalers and online suppliers such as Demesne Electrical, National Electrical Wholesalers, BPX, CEF Ireland, and Schneider Electric. Key Suppliers and Options

1. Demesne Electrical Demesne Electrical stocks a full range of distribution boxes, including the Euro2000 range of ABS enclosures designed for various electrical applications. They offer online ordering and provide technical support for selecting the right enclosures for your project . 2. National Electrical Wholesalers (NEW) NEW offers a variety of distribution boxes, including Hager marshalling boxes in multiple configurations (6-way, 8-way, 10-way, 12-way). They have nationwide branches and provide online purchasing options with VAT-inclusive pricing . 3. BPX Ireland BPX supplies terminal and distribution boxes from brands like Schneider and Eldon. Their catalog includes metal and stainless steel enclosures suitable for industrial and commercial installations . 4. CEF Ireland (City Electrical Factors) CEF has 17 branches across Ireland and stocks a wide range of electrical products, including switchgear, consumer units, and distribution boxes. They offer next-day delivery and same-day collection for urgent needs . 5. Tricel Tricel specializes in meter boxes and kiosks, including electrical distribution enclosures approved by ESB and Bord Gais. Their GRP and SMC enclosures are weather-resistant and suitable for outdoor installations . 6. Electrical Wholesaler Ireland This supplier offers flush boxes, dry lining boxes, and surface-mounted electrical boxes suitable for residential and commercial wiring projects. They provide a variety of sizes and materials for different installation needs . 7. Schneider Electric Ireland Schneider Electric provides steel enclosures for industrial and commercial applications, including wall-mounted and floor-standing distribution panels. Their products are designed for robust protection and flexibility in panel configuration . 8. Screwfix Ireland Screwfix stocks a range of junction boxes and small distribution enclosures, including weatherproof and IP-rated options for outdoor use. They offer online ordering with delivery or in-store collection .

Tips for Purchasing

- Determine the type and size of distribution box needed (residential, commercial, or industrial).
- Check IP ratings for outdoor or wet environments.
- Consider material (plastic, ABS, steel, or GRP) based on durability and installation location.
- Compare suppliers for pricing, delivery options, and technical support. By exploring these suppliers, you can find a wide selection of electrical distribution boxes suitable for any project in Ireland.
